

Concettina Larosa gained a “Maturität” Diploma in Basel, Switzerland in 1993, and in Rome, Italy a Diploma as Translator and Interpreter from the Private University Istituto Universitario per Interpreti e Traduttori in 1997, an Internet Marketing Manager Diploma from the Private School Reiss Romoli in 2001, an Italian “Master” degree in Quality, Environmental Quality, Company Management Systems, ISO 9000, VISION 2000, ISO 14000, Reg.to EMAS, Dlgs. 626/94, BS 7750, BS 8000 at the University S. Pio V in 2002 and a University Degree in Linguistic Mediation Sciences at the Private University Istituto Universitario Mediatori Linguistici in 2005.

In 1998 she worked for the National Italian Tumour Research Institute Regina Elena in Rome at the editorial office, she moved afterwards to the environmental sector and worked for an American Organisation the “Kamine Group” in charge of Engineering Procurement & Construction of waste-to-energy facilities as a translator and interpreter and junior project development support from 1998 to 2001.

In 2002 she started working with a private consulting group and technology transfer centre in Rome called Innova S.p.A., as Project Manager for European Projects in the V and VI Framework Programme of the European Commission in the Environmental, Food, Biotechnology and Information Society Technologies sector, she was also in charge of the Transnational Technology Transfer Unit supporting Italian Innovation Relay Centres of the European Commission.

Since 2004 she is working for Consorzio Pisa Ricerche Scrl (CPR), Divisione Informatica e Telecomunicazioni in Pisa, Italy as European and International Project Manager. She is the Project Manager of four Projects within CPR: NEST-PROMISE (www.nest-promise.net) promoting NEST like Programmes at a National level, IST-EC2 (www.ist-ec.org) promoting R&D between Europe and Canada, Ideal-ist (www.ideal-ist.net) supporting the IST Programme of the European Commission, and RECIST (<http://www.singleimage.co.uk/index.php>) promoting R&D between Europe and Russia. She speaks fluently four languages, Italian, German, English and French.